NOTICES OF OPPOSITION

TAKE NOTICE that the Registrar is in receipt of a notice of opposition filed by PHILIP MORRIS BRANDS Sàrl (The Opponent), of Quai Jeanrenaud 3, 2000 Neuchâtel Switzerland, against trademark Application No. 13097.16, filed on the 6th day of October, 2016, by LATIN AMERICA TOBACCO LTD. (The Applicant), of Victoria Street, Benque Viejo, Cayo District, Belize, for the registration of the following trademark, as proprietor thereof:

The Opponent opposes the above trademark Application on the grounds that:

1. Philip Morris Brands Sàrl (hereinafter referred to as – Philip Morris Brands) is the owner of numerous MARLBORO trademarks. Philip Morris Brands and its affiliates and licensees (collectively – Philip Morris) carry on the business of manufacture, sale and distribution of cigarettes and tobacco products throughout the world. Philip Morris manufactures and sells cigarettes for the global market under various brands including MARLBORO which is one of the most well-known brands worldwide. MARLBORO has been the world's best-selling cigarette brand since 1972.

The opponent is the proprietor of more than 50 applications/registrations in Belize consisting in or containing the word MARLBORO including but not limited to Marks #'s MARLBORO (stylized) Reg. No. 6444.09, MARLBORO Label Reg. No. 10427.14, MARLBORO Label Reg. No. 10428.14, & MARLBORO (word) Reg. No. 976 in respect of international class 34 for cigarettes and associated goods. The Belizean registration for the word mark MARLBORO dates back to 1954.

2. Comparison of goods
The goods for which the earlier marks are registered in International Class 34 are identical with or similar to the goods to which the contested mark seeks registration in International Class 34.
3. Comparison of signs

Applicant's mark	Opponent's prior registrations

The applicant's mark MARVEL & Device as depicted above is deceptively similar to the above earlier registrations.

The Applicant's mark consists inter alia of the word MARVEL written in the heavily modified typeface used by MARLBORO appearing under a device which in shape closely resembles the famous inverted roof design of MARLBORO thus simulating a distinctive element of the MARLBORO trade dress.

In the case of composite marks containing both figurative and verbal elements, it is generally the verbal element which has a greater impression as the consumer more readily refers to, and retains in his mind, marks by their verbal elements. Therefore, the dominant element in the Opposed mark is the word MARVEL.

The Opponent owns a word mark consisting of the sign MARLBORO written in heavily modified typeface, as well as word and device marks containing a five-sided figure (Roof Device) and the word MARLBORO appearing beneath it.

(i) Visual similarity

- If we compare the word elements, the Registered Trademark is eight letters long and the Opposed Trademark is six letters long. The two marks have the first of their letters in common, namely, M, A, and R. Importantly, these 3 shared letters occur in the same order in both marks; as well as sharing the letter L.

MARLBORO (Registered Trademark)

MARVEL (Opposed Trademark)

The marks are therefore quite similar visually. See the MARLBORO lights label below, which has been used by Philip Morris since at least as early as 1974:

(ii) Aural similarity

- The beginning of the marks MAR in MARLBORO and MAR in MARVEL are identical thus producing the same sound.
- The fact that both marks have an identical or very similar beginning is significant, as the first part of a trademark is generally the part that catches the consumer's attention and is remembered more clearly than the rest of the sign. The beginning of a sign has a significant influence on the general impression given by a trademark.

4. Fame of the MARLBORO Trademarks

The Trademarks MARLBORO of Philip Morris Brands Sàrl should be considered as well-known internationally and in Belize for tobacco products/cigarettes.

MARLBORO cigarettes were first launched by Philip Morris in 1924 in the U. S. Philip Morris, and/or licensees, have sold MARLBORO cigarettes internationally since at least as early as 1957. The worldwide commercialization of MARLBORO cigarettes expanded at a steady pace through the 1960's, 1970's, 1980's and 1990's, and Philip Morris Brands, its affiliates and/or licensees currently manufacture and/or sell cigarettes bearing the trademark MARLBORO in over 180 countries worldwide. The MARLBORO brand of cigarettes has been internationally protected as a trademark. The well-known status of the MARLBORO word mark has been legally confirmed in several jurisdictions.

Owing to longstanding use, extensive sales and advertising worldwide as and where permitted by law, the MARLBORO brand of cigarettes is among the world's most valuable global brands. In the 2010 Brand Z report, the MARLBORO cigarette brand was ranked number 7. In the 2011 Brand Z report, MARLBORO was ranked number 8.

The MARLBORO brand of cigarettes has been the No. 1 selling brand of cigarettes in the world for at least the past 20 years. The Maxwell Report from 1985 to 2005 shows that MARLBORO is listed as the best-selling cigarette brand in the world – the figures in the chart are worldwide shipments – including the United States of America – in million sticks.

In 2010, the sales volume of MARLBORO cigarettes outside the United States was 297.4 billion cigarettes. It is larger than its next two competitors combined. Its volume exceeds that of the top four global brands of British American Tobacco (BAT) and the four global brands of Japan Tobacco International (JTI).

- Total MARLBORO market share, excluding USA and China

2013: 9.3%
2014: 9.4%
2015: 9.6%

5. Conclusion

The contested goods and services are identical or similar to those for which the earlier marks are registered.

Consumers generally tend to focus on the first element of a sign when being confronted with a trade mark. This is justified by the fact that the public reads from left to right, which marks the part placed at the left of the sign (the initial part) the one that first catches the attention of the reader. Furthermore, where a trade mark is composed of verbal and figurative elements, like the Opposed Mark, the former should, in principle, be considered more distinctive than the latter, because the average consumer will more easily refer to the goods and services in question by quoting their name than by describing the figurative element of the trade mark.

In addition, the word MARLBORO is highly distinctive both per se and by virtue of intensive use or reputation. It is distinctive per se as it does not contain any element descriptive of the goods. The Trademarks MARLBORO should be considered as internationally famous due to the extensive use and advertising worldwide as and where permitted by law.

The more distinctive the earlier mark, the greater will be the likelihood of confusion. Furthermore, likelihood of confusion implies some interdependence between the relevant factors, and in particular a similarity between the trademarks and between the goods. Accordingly, a lesser degree of similarity between the goods may be offset by a greater degree of similarity between the marks, and vice versa.

In the case at hand, the goods are identical or similar and the signs are visually and aurally similar and the Trademarks MARLBORO are highly distinctive.

6. Therefore, there exists a likelihood of confusion on the part of the public including the likelihood of association with the earlier marks.
7. Such confusion will give rise to the passing off of the goods marketed under the said mark for those of the MARLBORO brand thus misleading the public into the belief that the goods offered by the Applicant are those of the Opponent.
8. The said MARLBORO marks are well known trade marks and as such are entitled to protection under the Paris Convention.
9. The MARLBORO marks have a reputation in Belize and the use of the Applicant's mark without due cause would take unfair advantage of or be detrimental to the distinctive character or repute of the MARLBORO marks.
10. The targeted consumers are the same in that they are persons looking for tobacco products.
11. The channels of trade are identical or substantially similar in that the products are sold where tobacco products are available.

The Applicant is required to submit a response to this notice, to the Registrar, no later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice.

DATED this 23rd day of March, 2017.

TAKE NOTICE that the Registrar is in receipt of a notice of opposition filed by Marvel Characters, Inc., (The Opponent), of 500 South Buena Vista Street, Burbank, California, 915201, United States of America, against trademark Application No. 13097.16, filed on the 6th day of October, 2016, by Latin America Tobacco Ltd. (The Applicant), of Victoria Street, Benque Viejo, Cayo District, Belize, for the registration of the following trademark, as proprietor thereof:

The Opponent opposes the above trademark Application on the grounds that:

1. the Opponent, Marvel Characters, Inc., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware with principal place of business at 500 South Buena Vista Street, Burbank, California 915201, United States of America, a subsidiary of Marvel Entertainment LLC, opposes the Applicant's application for registration of trademark Marvel on the ground that the Applicant's trademark is identical by name to the Opponent's trademark MARVEL and that the registration of the mark will result in the likelihood of confusion and or association with the Opponent's trade mark based on Article 6bis of the Paris Convention 1883;
2. the Opponent has been engaged for decades in the business of producing and marketing in the United States of America and worldwide of a variety of entertainment goods and services including but not limited to animated and live action motion picture, publications, merchandise, artwork and other goods and services featuring the MARVEL name and character and has worked tirelessly and unsparingly to be recognized as the exclusive owner of the trade mark MARVEL earning a solid reputation with its fan base of children and adults who read MARVEL comics, watch MARVEL movies and television programs;
3. the Opponent's trademark has become a household name, identifiable with children and adults globally and has a library of over 8,000 popular characters comprising mutants armor-clad super geniuses, aliens and super soldiers such as Spiderman, Wolverine, The Fantastic Four, Dare Devil, The Punisher, Ghost Rider, Doctor Strange and X-Men among others. Additionally it is owner of Marvel Studios which has produced hit films such as Ironman 1, 2 and 3, The Incredible Hulk, Captain America: The First Avenger, Captain America: The Winter Soldier, Thor and Thor: The Dark World each of which has yielded over US$1 Billion Dollars worldwide. Additionally, the Opponent has established its personalized mobile apps which are among iTunes', most popular applications allowing people worldwide to connect and/or visit its websites such as: <http://marvel.com> and <http://disneyxd.disney.com/marvel-universe> which provides information about the Opponent and its characters, comics, games, movies, TV programs etc. Furthermore, the Opponent has exclusive pages on facebook, twitter, Google, Tumblr, You Tube, Pinterest which are accessible globally;
4. the Opponent has been using the trademark MARVEL as early as 1968 and has procured registration in Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belarus, Benelux, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Ecuador, Egypt, France, Hungary, India, Israel, Italy, Japan, Jordan, Macau, Malaysia, Mexico, Norway, Panama, Peru among other countries as attaches. The Opponent is also the owner of MARVEL COMICS LOGO and M MARVEL COMIC STYLIZED which are also registered worldwide. By virtue of prior global adoption and worldwide registrations, long and continuous use and vast publicity, the trademark Marvel has become synonymous with the Opponent and its quality products and services and has therefore attained the status as a well known trade mark;
5. Belize is signatory to the Paris Convention and therefore ARTICLE 8 of the Paris Convention which states: "A trade name shall be protected in all the countries of the union without the obligation of filing or registration, whether or not it forms part of a trade mark" is relevant to this matter and the Opponent is therefore entitled to protection;
6. the Opponent respectfully requests that the application for registration of trade mark Marvel be refused on the ground that:
 - (a) the trademark is identical by name to the Marvel trade mark seeking registration;
 - (b) the registration thereof will amount to dilution of the Opponent's trade mark;
 - (c) the public is likely to confuse and/or associate the Applicant's trade mark with the Opponent's trade mark thus wrongfully gaining the reputation and goodwill of the Opponent's trade mark.

The Applicant is required to submit a response to this notice, to the Registrar, no later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice.

DATED this 24th day of March, 2017.

TAKE NOTICE that the Registrar is in receipt of a notice of opposition filed by LRC Products Limited, (The Opponent), of 103-105 Bath Road, Slough, Berkshire, SL1 3UH, United Kingdom, against trademark Application No. 13106.16, filed on the 11th day of October, 2016, by Abbott Products Operations AG (The Applicant), of Hegenheimermattweg 127, Allschwil 4123, Switzerland, for the registration of the following trademark, as proprietor thereof:

DURAX

The Opponent opposes the above trademark Application on the grounds that:

1. there is a very close similarity in the name of the mark to our previously registered marks "DUREX" No. 6011.09 registered 28th June 1991 and registered in classes 5 and 10 and No. 3248 registered 15th November 1949 and registered in Class 10;
2. the similarity is likely to cause confusion in the minds of the buying public.

The Applicant is required to submit a response to this notice, to the Registrar, no later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice.

DATED this 24th day of March, 2017.

NOTICE OF RULING

IN THE MATTER OF A NOTICE OF OPPOSITION (PUBLISHED IN THE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY JOURNAL VOL. 17 – NO. 3, JAGUAR LAND ROVER LIMITED (THE OPPONENT), AGAINST TRADE MARK APPLICATION NO. 13042.16 FILED BY CARIBBEAN LICENSING CORP.

TAKE NOTICE that the Registrar has ruled against the Applicant, due to the failure of the Applicant to answer, pursuant to Rule 33 of the Trade Marks Rules (CAP. 257S), to the notice of opposition filed by the Opponent. The Registrar hereby refuses to register the above trademark application based on the grounds stated in the above notice of opposition.

DATED this 24th day of March, 2017.
