- liii. No. 2010/00529 – South Africa; filed on January 13, 2010;

4. The Applicant, as owner of the trademark VIVE SOY & DEVICE seeks to register its trademark in Belize under class 29 and 32 which pertains to the following goods:

Class 29 for Soya milk and soya milk products excluding ice cream, ice milk and frozen yogurt; soya-based food beverages used as a milk substitute; AND

Class 32 for non-alcoholic beverages made with fruit juice and soya; fruit juices; fruit beverages having fruit juices and soya

5. The Opponent claims that our trademark is confusingly similar based on the goods which we seek to register our mark and the trademark itself with that of the earlier mark and that there exists a likelihood of confusion on the part of the public based on the foregoing as well as the likelihood of association with the proprietor of the earlier trademark. The Applicant denies that the trademarks are similar under a global point of view for the following reasons:
- i. the marks have been existing and are being used simultaneously in other jurisdictions;
  - ii. the word “Soy” is a generic word and a descriptive term for soy based beverages among other food products and it should not be considered a distinctive character for the comparison of the trademarks;
  - iii. the word “VITA” is the Latin word for “Life” in English. However, in the eyes of the Belizean public, “VITA” is most commonly associated to the word “VITAMIN”. The word “VIVE” is the Spanish translation for “Life” in English and as Spanish is widely spoken in Belize, Belizean consumers would tend to associate with “VIVE” with “Life” not “VITA” with “LIFE”.
  - iv. From a phonetic point of view the trademark VIVESOY is not similar to the Opponent’s trademark in the following way”
    - 1. The first two syllables, “VIVE” has a two letter difference from that of “VITA” which affects the way the word sounds when pronounced by an English speaker.
  - v. in the pronunciation of the terms “VIVE” and “VITA” in the Belizean context, “VIVE” and “VITA” are not confusingly similar but substantially different in sound. In Belize, “VIVE” would typically be pronounced by expressing the “I” as a long E, as in vegan, while “VITA” would typically be pronounced by expressing the “I” therein as a sharp I as in the first “I” in the word vitamin.
6. The Applicant states that in light of the above there are significant differences between the earlier trademark and that both marks have co-existed in other markets without confusion, namely, Spain and the European Community.
7. The Applicant denies the Opponent’s accusation of unfair competition by registering its trademark in Belize as the Applicant’s mark has enjoyed long use of the trademark for more than 13 years and has made its own reputation in the international community within this time.
8. In light of the above, the Applicant request that the opposition be rejected and the application to register the mark be granted as there is no risk of confusion or association with the Opponent’s mark on the part of the Belizean public since the Applicant’s trademark is unique, distinct, and has been recognized as one of the leading brands in soy drinks worldwide.

DATED this 17th day of June, 2014.

TAKE NOTICE that the Registrar is in receipt of an answer, filed on the 27th day of May, 2014, by VERSACE 19.69 ABBIGLIAMENTO SPORTIVO S.R.L., (The Applicant), of Via Daniele Crespi, 1 I-21052 Busto Arsizio (VA) (IT), to the Opposition by GAP (ITM) Inc., filed on the 11th day of April, 2014, against trade mark application No. 10198.13, filed on the 1st day of October, 2013, by VERSACE 19.69 ABBIGLIAMENTO SPORTIVO S.R.L., for the registration of the following trade mark, as proprietors thereof:

The Applicant hereby gives notice that the following are the grounds on which it relies as supporting the above trade mark:-

1. The Applicant, VERSACE 19.69 ABBIGLIAMENTO SPORTIVO S.R.L. was established in Milan, by Alessandro Versace. Versace created a concept highly dominated by the Italian elegance, style and quality. Versace 19.69 Abbigliamento Sportivo, continuing this tradition and vanguard, creates an individual style of lines, forms, and materials, following the contemporary trends and the consumer's different needs.
2. The Applicant and its marks are renowned worldwide and are entitled to protection under the Paris Convention as a well-known mark and is itself a well-known mark pursuant to Section 38(1)(b) of the Trade Marks. Act.
3. The Applicant's mark has been registered in many countries including India, Taiwan, Canada, Brazil, Panama, Dominican Republic, Aruba, Bermuda, EU Community registration (comprising of Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Cyprus, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Great Britain, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Holland, Poland, Portugal, Czech Republic, Estonia, Slovak Republic, Romania, Slovenia, Spain, Switzerland, Hungary), China, Curacao, Russia, Mexico, United States of America and Turkey under International Class 25 for the following specification of goods and the subject Applicant's application is for clothing for gentlemen, ladies and children, namely, clothing of leather; clothing of imitations of leather; shirts; blouses; skirts; suits; jackets [clothing]; trousers; shorts; jerseys [clothing]; undershirts; pajamas (Am.); stockings; singlets; corsets [underclothing]; suspenders; underpants; brassieres; slips [undergarments]; hats; headscarves [headwear]; neckties; raincoats; overcoats; coats; swimsuits; tracksuits; anoraks; ski pants; belts [clothing]; fur coats; mufflers; gloves [clothing]; dressing gowns; footwear, namely, slippers, sports shoes, sandals, beach shoes, basketball shoes, football shoes, gymnastic shoes, running shoes, training shoes, walking shoes, casual boots and walking boots.
4. In the opposition there is absolutely no mention of any class much less specificity as to goods to provide the foundation on which the Registrar may consider and decide. There is no mention of the Opponent's marks being registered in Belize and the Opponent's bare assertion of being "well-known" has been determined by case law to be measured as known to the average Belizean consumer.
5. There is no likelihood of confusion between the Applicant's mark and the Opponent's marks, GAP 1969 or 1969 (hereinafter referred to as "the Opponent's marks"), which may mislead the public into thinking that the marks are associated and owned by the same company.
6. The Applicant denies that its mark is similar to the Opponents' marks, which consists of a simple number trademark, with the numbers 1969 appearing together and taken as one.
7. The Opponent's marks consist of the numbers "1969", which the Applicant's mark is a compound trademark, in which the numbers do not appear together but consists of two different numbers "19" and "69" and which are separated by a large stylized letter "V", in the middle of the numbers "19" and "69" arranged on each side of the letter "V". The "V" stands for "VERSACE" and is a distinctive element of the Applicant's mark, which further differentiates the Applicant's mark from the Opponent's mark.
8. The Applicant's mark also consists of the word ITALIA, which although descriptive of a nation in which the Applicant operates, is, however, a differentiating and perhaps even distinctive element with respect to the headquarters of the company, GAP, which is not an Italian company.
9. The Applicant's mark is read as "19V69 ITALIA", the numbers 19 and 69 separated by the letter "V" are, as such, two different numbers when compared to the number, 1969.

10. The Opponent's mark when compared to the Applicant's mark is totally different and there is no similarity in any of the criteria of sense of the mark, optic impression of the mark and phonetic impression of the mark.
11. The Applicant's trademark is, therefore, from the semantic, literal and figurative points of view, different from the Opponent's mark.
12. The Opponent relies on Section 37.1 of the Trade Marks Act, Chapter 257 of the Laws of Belize, dealing with identical mark AND identical goods. The conjunctive "AND" means both limbs must be satisfied. In this case, the marks are not identical and NO goods are ever referred to. Section 37.1 can therefore not be invoked to prevent registration.
13. The Opponent relies on section 37.2(a) of the Trade Marks Act, Chapter 257 of the Laws of Belize, dealing with identical mark AND similar goods. The conjunctive "AND" means both limbs must be satisfied. In this case, the marks are not identical and NO goods are ever referred to. This can amount to abuse of process to oppose without setting out grounds on which to invoke 37.2(a). Section 37.2(a) can therefore not be invoked to prevent registration.
14. The Opponent relies on Section 37.2(b) of the Trade Marks Act, Chapter 257 of the Laws of Belize, dealing with similar mark AND similar goods. The conjunctive "AND" means both limbs must be satisfied. In this case, the marks in totality are not similar and NO goods are ever referred to, which in Applicant's submission is a fatal defect that cannot be cured. Section 37.2(b) can therefore not be invoked to prevent registration.
15. The Opponent relies on Section 37.3 of the Trade Marks Act, Chapter 257 of the Laws of Belize, dealing with similar mark AND goods that are not similar. The conjunctive "AND" means both limbs must be satisfied. In this case, the marks in totality are not similar and all the Opponent's arguments in 37.1 and 2 are implying that the goods are in fact similar. It is illogical for Sub-sections (1), (2) and (3) to all be used at the same time. Opponent must decide if the goods are either similar or not similar, hence our submission is reinforced by the futility and fatality of not setting out the goods before opposing and relying on each and every section of the Trade Mark Act possible. If Opponent wishes to rely on Section 37.3, they cannot rely on Sections 37.1 and 2 as far as similarity of goods is concerned (and vice versa). The reliance on Sections 37.1 & 2 supra is their own admission, and confirms our submissions and Section 37.3 can therefore not be invoked to prevent registration.
16. Even if they would try to rely on the third limb of Section 37.3, there is no evidence and they cannot supply any evidence that the Applicant is or has or taken unfair advantage of or that it will detrimental to the character or repute of an "earlier mark" when the Applicant is equally an earlier mark.
17. The Opponent relies on Section 37.4 with regard to possible reliance on the law of "passing off". The Opponent is not registered to do business in Belize nor are there any licensed distributors of their "1969" products within Belize. Accordingly, it is obvious that any purported action for passing off would be summarily struck out before any case ever commences. The Opponent's mere wholesale reliance on Section 37 even when they are in conflict with other Sections of the Law that they rely upon undermines the Opposition and the basis for Opposition. The Opponent can therefore not rely on 37.4 to prevent registration and attempts to overturn the "first to file" system in place in Belize.
18. There is no likelihood of passing off one mark for the other which would lead the public to believe that the services offered by the Applicant are the services of the Opponent.
  - (a) The Applicant does not by the use of its mark make a representation to the public, whether intentionally or not, which would lead or is likely to lead the public to believe that the goods offered by the Applicant are the goods of the Opponent;
  - (b) The Applicant's use of its mark or the registration thereof is not calculated to injure the business or goodwill of the Opponent;
  - (c) The Applicant's use of its mark will not cause any loss or damage to the business or goodwill of the Opponent;
  - (d) The Opponent will not suffer any loss or damage to its business or goodwill due to any erroneous belief that the Applicant's goods or use of the mark are the goods or mark of the Opponent.
19. The Opponent relies on Section 37.6 alleging bad faith. The Applicant is a bonafide producer of the products in question and is not seeking to "trademark squat" or any other example of what constitutes bad faith. The Applicant conducted searches in Belize and there was absolutely nothing found with respect to the Opponent's mark. Based on all the aforesaid, examples of lack of completeness, absence of specificity as to goods and inconsistency in legal argument it is rather the Opponent that demonstrates bad faith and the Applicant will consider defamation proceedings for such allegation.
20. The Applicant therefore respectfully requests that the application for registration of the above mark be accepted as there is no valid opposition at this date based on the foregoing and pursuant to the administrative rules.
