NOTICES OF OPPOSITIONNOTICE OF OPPOSITION

TAKE NOTICE that the Registrar is in receipt of a notice of opposition filed by ALLIANCE ATLANTIS COMMUNICATIONS, INC. (The Opponent), of 121 Bloor Street East, Suite 1500, Toronto, Ontario, N4W 3M5, Canada, against Trade Mark Application No. 3072.05, filed on the 5th day of May, 2005, by A&E TELEVISION NETWORKS (The Applicant), of 235 East 45th Street, New York, New York, 10017, United States of America, for the registration of the following trade mark, as proprietors thereof:

The Opponent opposes the above Trade Mark Application on the grounds that:

1. Alliance Atlantis is a leading producer and worldwide distributor of television programs and feature films;
2. Alliance Atlantis is the owner of a family of CSI Trade Marks including, CSI: CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATION, CSI: MIAMI and CSI: NY. The design versions of these trade marks are associated with TV programs, each aimed as a series of crime dramas (collectively referred to as "CSI Programs"). These programs are also distributed on videotapes and DVDs;

3. Alliance Atlantis distributes the CSI Programs and owns all rights to the CSI Trade Marks worldwide, other than the United States. In the United States, these rights are held by CBS Broadcasting, Inc., the partner of Alliance Atlantis in the production and protection of this series;
4. Alliance Atlantis owns trade mark applications and registrations for each of the three CSI Trade Marks in more than 130 countries around the world;
5. the original of the three CSI Programs, CSI: CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATION, was first broadcast in approximately September 2000 in the United States. The other two CSI series, CSI: MIAMI and CSI: NY, were created and subsequently broadcast as the popularity and success of the original series grew. The CSI Programs have been continuously broadcast, since their first introduction, in more than 200 countries around the world. Typically, one episode of each of the three CSI Programs is broadcast weekly throughout the regular viewing season and re-broadcasts of episodes previously aired continue through the year. In some jurisdictions, such as Canada and the United States, re-broadcasts are aired multiple times daily;
6. the CSI Programs are extremely successful in North America and worldwide. The programs have very strong ratings and have attracted record levels of viewers in many countries around the world. For example the episode of CSI: MIAMI that introduced the third series CSI: NY entitled "MIA/NYC-Non Stop" and the Season Finale Episode of CSI: CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATION which aired in Spring of 2005, had more than 23 Million and 30.7 Million viewers respectively in the United States alone. In the United States, CSI: CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATION has been one of the top ten television shows, in terms of the number of viewers, for every season since its debut. From the 2001-2002 season to the 2004-2005 season, it has averaged more viewers than any drama on television. In the 2002-2003 season, CSI: CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATION was the most watched television show in the United States, regardless of genre, and averaged more than 25 Million each episode. In Canada, CSI: CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATION, CSI: MIAMI and CSI: NY hold the top three positions for the highest rated dramas on TV;
7. the CSI Programs are the highest rated American television series for key international broadcasters including Channel in Australia, Channel Five in the UK, TFI in France, Telecinco in Spain and VOX and TRL in Germany. In France, CSI: CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATION (CSI: LES EXPERTS) has been the #1 late night drama with approximately 39% market share. On May 30, 2005, TFI premiered the final episode of CSI: MIAMI drawing an unprecedented 9.1 Million viewers. It was the highest rating across all channels for the entire week on French television beating French local dramas, feature films, reality TV programs and football finals;
8. the CSI: CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATION and CSI: MIAMI programs have been, and continue to be broadcast in Belize;
9. there has been extensive advertising of the CSI Programs around the world and have received extensive media attention. An extensive array of merchandising products are produced and sold worldwide in association with the CSI Trade Marks, under license. These products include goods ranging from videotapes and DVDs, containing episode of CSI Programs, to books such as "CSI: Body of Evidence", "The Official Guide to CSI" and "CSI: Sin City", video games, board games, trading cards, and toys relating to the CSI Programs and crime investigation, to clothing, etc.;
10. as a result of the unprecedented exposure of the CSI Trade Marks to consumers based on the success and popularity of the CSI Programs, the CSI Trade Marks are well known and have become famous marks in some countries. There is no doubt that the adoption by A&E of the opposed trade mark, which begins with the CI acronym followed by the words CRIME INVESTIGATION NETWORK and/or CHANNEL, is a direct attempt to suggest and create a false association between the Opponent and the Applicant, designed to misappropriate and take advantage of the goodwill and reputation created by Alliance Atlantis and CBS in the CSI Programs and the related trade marks;
11. in view of the fact that the popularity of the original series, CSI: CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATION has already resulted in the creation of two additional related TV series, CSI: MIAMI and CSI: NY, consumers will necessarily assume that the programs associated with the trademark CI: CRIME INVESTIGATION NETWORK and/or CHANNEL are somehow related or associated with the CSI Programs. Although A&E programs have not yet started to air or broadcast in most countries, there is already confusion in the entertainment trade, evidenced by the fact that a media broadcast package to promote the launch of the A&E program in Australia was mistakenly sent to the producers of the CSI Programs at their Los Angeles Office. If confusion exists, at the trade level, there is no doubt that confusion will exist for consumers, once the A&E series is launched.

DATED this 2nd day of November, 2005.

3. the Opponent's trademark has gained international recognition and the Applicant's trademark may cause some confusion which may mislead the public into thinking that the marks are associated and are owned by the same company;
4. such confusion will give rise to the passing off of one mark for the other and would lead the public to believe that the goods offered by the Applicant are the goods of the Opponent;
5. if registration is permitted the use of the Applicant's mark will take advantage of and may be of detriment to the distinctive character and repute of the Opponent's mark.
