NOTICE OF ANSWER TO OPPOSITION

IN THE MATTER OF an opposition by TROPIC AIR LIMITED to application No. 17110.21, we TROPICAL SHIPPING AND CONSTRUCTION COMPANY LIMITED, LLC of 501 Avenue P, Riviera Beach, FL 33404 ("the Applicant"), hereby give notice that the following are the grounds on which we rely as supporting our application:

1. The trademark TROPAIR has been in existence since at least as early as 2006 and is well-known worldwide for its freight shipping, air transport and storage of goods, specifically commercial cargo and less-than-container-load cargo, most notably in North America and the Caribbean region. The tradename TROPAIR has been used by the Applicant at least as early as 2006.
2. The Applicant has registered and used the trademark TROPAIR since 2006 in North America and the Caribbean Region to protect the Applicant's goods registered in Class 39, and registering its mark in Belize is a natural extension of its commercial activity, particularly having regard to the proximity of where the trademark has been registered and is being used to the immediate region of Belize, including Honduras, Guatemala, Mexico, the Bahamas and the wider Caribbean region, and the intention is now to use the same in Belize.
3. The trademark has a strong reputation worldwide, as it has been in use for more than 16 years and currently has protected status in the following countries:
 - i. The United States of America
 - ii. Canada
 - iii. Mexico
 - iv. Honduras
 - v. Jamaica
 - vi. The Bahamas
4. The Applicant, as owner of the trademark TROPAIR, seeks to register its trademark in Belize under class 39 which pertains to the following goods:

Class 39 for Air Transport; and Storage of goods;
5. The Opponent claims that the Applicant's trademark is confusingly similar based on the goods for which it seeks to register its mark and the trademark itself with that of the earlier mark and that there would exist a likelihood of confusion on the part of the public based on the foregoing as well as the likelihood of association with the proprietor of the earlier unregistered mark. The Applicant denies that there would exist a likelihood of confusion/association and puts the Opponent to strict proof of the same.
6. The Applicant denies the Opponent's accusation that the Applicant, by registering and using the Mark, would be committing the tort of passing off because:
 - i. The Applicant's mark is not similar to the Opponent's mark for the purposes of the law of passing off and/or for the purposes of trademark registration in Belize; and
 - ii. The Applicant's mark is being and has been used internationally for several years; therefore, the Applicant is not and cannot be exploiting any purported goodwill established by the Opponent in any jurisdiction/market including Belize.
7. The Applicant denies the Opponent's accusation that the Applicant would be contravening any rights of the Opponent under the Copyright Act of Belize as the Applicant's mark is an original mark and is not in any way derived from any material of the Opponent subject to copyright protection.

8. The Applicant denies the Opponent's accusation of bad faith by seeking to register its trademark in Belize as the Applicant has enjoyed long international use of its trademark for more than 16 years and has made its own reputation in the international community within this time.
 9. The Applicant further denies the allegation of bad faith as the Applicant conducted an international trademark search via third party to confirm no identical or similar prior registrations existed in several countries, including Belize, and the Applicant should not be prejudiced by the Opponent's failure to register its mark in Belize. Conversely, The Opponent's attempt to impede Applicant's application with spurious claims and without doing its own due diligence is a waste of scarce resources and tantamount to bad faith.
 10. The Applicant further states that the opposition been brought because Opponent sat on its purported rights, failed to apply for a trademark in the jurisdiction of its headquarters, and that its grounds of opposition are without merit.
 11. In light of the above, the Applicant requests that the opposition be rejected and the Applicant's application to register the mark be granted as there is no risk of confusion or association with the Opponent's mark on the part of the Belizean public since the Applicant's trademark is unique and has been recognized as one of the leading brands in commercial freight and cargo shipping/transport services worldwide.
