NOTICE OF ANSWER TO OPPOSITION

TAKE NOTICE that the Registrar is in receipt of an answer, filed on the 7th day of March, 2023, by GRUPO BIMBO S.A.B. DE C.V. (The Applicant), of Prolongación Paseo de la Reforma No. 1000, Colonia Peña Blanca Santa Fe, Delegación Álvaro Obregón, 01210, Ciudad de México, México, to the Opposition by HOSTESS BRANDS LLC (The Opponent) filed on the 20th day of January, 2023, for the registration of the following trade mark, as proprietors thereof:

TWINKIES

The Applicant hereby gives notice that the following are the grounds on which it relies as supporting the above trade mark:

1. The Applicant is a major multinational company with a presence in 33 countries of America, Europe, Asia, and Africa and which is based in Mexico, the neighbouring country of Belize.
2. Many of the Applicant's marks have been in use in Mexico for many years, including but not limited to the town of Chetumal, Quintana Roo, a border town of Belize which is visited daily over the course of many years by Belizeans, expressly for commercial and shopping purposes, and to the best of the Applicant's knowledge, information and belief, the Applicant's marks are quite familiar to Belizean consumers.
3. The Applicant has registered many of its marks in Belize over many years.
4. The Applicant has supplied many of its goods to Belize over many years.
5. The Applicant Mark, "TWINKIES" was acquired by Continental de Alimentos S.A. de C.V. in Mexico on or around 1975 from ITT Continental Baking Company. Subsequently, on or around 1987, a trademark transfer agreement was executed between the said Continental de Alimentos S.A. de C.V. and Central Impulsora, S.A. de C.V. On or around 2002, the said Central Impulsora S.A. de C.V. and the Applicant (under its former name, Grupo Bimbo S.A. de C.V.) merged. As a consequence of this merger, the trademark registrations of the said Central Impulsora S.A. de C.V. were acquired by the Applicant. The Applicant Mark, "TWINKIES" remains under the ownership of the Applicant in Mexico to the present day.
6. The Applicant Mark, "TWINKIES" is actually and effectively used by the Applicant in Mexico, in such a way that it is a widely recognized trademark and, more importantly, one that consumers associate directly with the Applicant for well over 20 years. In other words, consumers in Mexico are very familiar with the TWINKIES trademark and have directly and immediately identified it with Grupo Bimbo for more than 20 years.
7. Further, on or around 2014 the Applicant acquired the Boulangerie Vachon Inc. / Vachon Bakery Inc., which owned several trademarks in Canada, including TWINKIES and HOSTESS.
8. The Applicant Mark, "TWINKIES" is not only under the ownership of the Applicant in Canada but is also used in this jurisdiction by the Applicant.
9. The Opponent has not registered their mark in Belize and instead has based their opposition by claiming that their mark is an "earlier trade mark" under sections 37(1), 37(2) and 38(1)(b) of the Trade Marks Act, whereby their mark is entitled to protection under the Paris Convention as a well-known trade mark. The Applicant has no knowledge of whether or not the Opponent Mark is used or well-known in Belize.
10. Rather, it is the Applicant Mark is a well-known trade mark in Mexico and is entitled to protection under the Paris Convention (including but not limited to Article 6bis thereof, as ratified under the Trade Marks Act) as a well-known trade mark.
11. Due to its outright ownership of the Applicant Mark in Mexico (being the headquarters and origin of its global operations) and Canada along with its past, existing and future interest in registering its trademarks and supplying its goods internationally and into the Belize market, including but not limited to its goods under the Mark presently in issue, the Opponent cannot be seen to have attempted this filing in any bad faith.

12. The Opposition should therefore be refused and the Applicant's Mark should proceed to registration.

13. The Applicant should be awarded costs in the matter.
